Ostara/Vernal Equinox
Bay Area Pagan Activities and News

The President's Pleasure

My Dear BAPAN's:

The other day I was sitting out on the patio of my new home enjoying Caffaina's delightful brew and the first rays of light as the Young God sleepily reached out to claim His place in the sky. In the distance I could hear a lone bird making its wake-up call to the world. Soon other birds began to answer, and a chorus of birds began to sing in a vibrant symphony which I realized was in honor of spring!

Spring has come upon us! It is the time of Ostara, the Vernal Equinox. The young Goddess and God are frolic in nature, innocent in life as a new beginning springs forth in shades of green, in the buds of flowers and the nest building of birds, joining in the dance of mating and rebirth.

Spring is a time of fertility! We've come out of the long, cold dark of winter. We've prepared the seeds of new life for planting. It is time to focus our rituals for new beginnings, new growth and prosperity, and for bearing our children into happy, healthy lives.

Spring is a time of cheer! One of the traditions of Pagan times was the coloring of hard-boiled eggs. Just because some "other" religion absorbed this tradition doesn't mean we can't honor it! Color your eggs with signs of prosperity and new beginnings and use them in ritual. While digesting them, focus on what you will manifest within you as a new and prosperous being.

Springtime is a time of new beginnings! Our General Assembly meeting is coming up in June. BAPA needs new blood to keep it alive and well. If you are interested in serving your community as a member of BAPA, talk to one of the BAPA officers about becoming a board member, an officer, or a volunteer. Many of us have served the community for two or more years now, and some of us are retiring our duties come June. BAPA needs you! If you would like to be a serving member, please contact me at bapaprez@yahoo.com, and let's talk!

Have fun this spring, and shake off the old skin of last year. This is the time for your inner child to dance with the young Lady and Lord.

Blessed be to you and yours,

David "Blue" Fletcher-MacLeod
President, Bay Area Pagan Assemblies

Athena's Archives

BAPA Library:

The library is a lending and exchange library, therefore any materials such as books, videos, cassettes, or tarot decks circulate, with the inventory being mutable over time. The library is accessible at the Gaia's Gateway each month. What interesting pagan reading or movie watching have you done recently? Send us a review and recommendation.

Editorial Illuminations

Well, my term as editor of the BAPAN is coming to a close soon. I will put out the Beltaine issue in a few weeks and then I outta here. Heading to Tucson and the bright warm sunny Southwest. I already love it. We've already begun to make connection with the Pagan community there and hope it won't be long before we have new friends. Not that I'll be dropping the old ones, but always circling at a distance has its limitations. I hope that there is someone in the BAPAN community who wants this job and will contact me while I'm still here to hand it over personally. It's a fun job, and you get to interact with lots of great people in the community. Think about it and let me know if you're interested.

Bright Blessings,

Neva Schuelke, Editor

Ostara is the Teutonic goddess of fertility, personal renewal, and fruitfulness. Her symbol is the egg. She represents the renewal of the Earth and the life force of Spring. She is also the goddess of dawn (new beginnings). One variation of her name, Eostara, eventually became Easter. Spells and foods that include eggs are particularly appropriate on Her day.
